

Year 3 Philosophy Home Discussions Due July 4

What does it mean to be Ordinary?

Arthur is an ordinary dog in a pet shop. No one wants to take him home so he tries to change himself to be like others in the hope that someone will like him. Arthur wanted to be different!

Questions to talk with your family.

Do you think we should change the way we are so that people will like us more?

What does it mean when you are told to “be yourself!”

Year 3 Philosophy Home Discussions Due July 4

What does it mean to be Ordinary?

Arthur is an ordinary dog in a pet shop. No one wants to take him home so he tries to change himself to be like others in the hope that someone will like him. Arthur wanted to be different!

Questions to talk with your family.

Do you think we should change the way we are so that people will like us more?

What does it mean when you are told to “be yourself!”